Reviews

The most effective publication i at any time go through. This is certainly for all those who statte that there had not been a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an extremely straightforward way which is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where basically changed me, change the way in my opinion.

Xulon Press, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you desire to be all that you can be in the ministry? Have you ever wondered if it is possible to effectively balance family, ministry and work? Whether single or married, whether a potential, emerging or well-seasoned minister, God desires that we rise above mediocrity and be successful in all relationships and in every area of life. In this outstanding book, Thomas offers practical tips and real life examples of how to live in victory inside and outside of the church as a ministerial leader. He addresses those tough character issues that many in the ministry have struggled with but may have been afraid to address. This insightful book will encourage, yet also challenge all to rise to higher levels in the development of inner character. God desires excellence in our conduct in the church, but also at home and in public settings - beyond the pulpit, beyond the church. Author Bio: In his pursuit to serve and effectively lead God's people, Thomas Webb has earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Management of Human Resources from Faulkner University of Montgomery, Alabama and a Master of Science degree in Ministerial Leadership from Southern Christian University of Montgomery, Alabama. He holds a Master of Divinity Degree from Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Thomas Webb has been blessed to earn Doctor of Ministry degrees from Amridge University of Montgomery, Alabama and Friends International Christian University of Merced, California. He resides in Colorado Springs with his wife Janice and family.
