Do you remember all the plans you had made, all the dreams you had for the future? Audrey will always remember her final year. It was the year the world ended. Audrey Little is your typical Australian teenager. Bit of a nerd, loves photography. Bullied by the dance students, crushing on the guy she s known forever. Her next few years are all laid out in front of her: The school ball. Final exams. Graduation. University. A lowly paid, part time job. However, when a comet, on an apocalyptic course to collide with the Earth in 18 months time is discovered on the eve of the school ball, Audrey and her friends are suddenly confronted by an uncertain future. As they continue to deal with the struggles of becoming adults as the world around them prepares to deal for the end of world, Audrey soon finds herself isolated and alone, with only one person being able to save her from herself, a person she has long since given up on.
