Hamilton, a Yale student; James A. Whitman, State Religious Work Secretary; Ex-Governor George H. Utter, Westerly, R. I.; E. M. Robinson, New York; Dr. George J. Fisher, New York, and Commander A. V. Wadhams, U. S. N. The story of the first Boys Conference in Massachusetts, held in Everett, January 28, 1891, was told by Mr. William F. Moore, Everett, who organized the Conference twenty years previous. Greetings were given by a number of officers of former Conferences, and many telegrams received. A sectional Conference for adult workers was held Saturday afternoon, presided over by Mr. Robinson. Sunday evening an organ recital and musical program was given by Organist WT. C. Hammond and a chorus of thirty voices. Morning Watch prayer cards were used at this Conference for the first time. The six-year goal printed on page 52 was presented at...
