Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Teachers College Bulletin: Score Card for Village and Rural, School Buildings of Four, Teachers or Less This score card has been developed after the plan followed for the Strayer and Engelhardt Score Card for City School Buildings published by this bureau. The major items of the city school building score card have also been used here. These major items are Site, Building, Service Systems, Classrooms and Special Rooms. In dividing among the sub-items the total number of points allotted to the ideal school situation, the judgments of about 250 judges have been utilized. The median judgment of this group was used in each instance as the basis for determining the number of points to be allotted to any of the subdivisions on the score card. A thorough knowledge of the standards which are presented on pages 9 to 22 of this pamphlet is a prerequisite to a proper use of the score card. After these standards have been thoroughly studied, visits to buildings under the guidance of a competent student of rural school problems would add greatly in training persons to use this method of measurement of the school plant. Pages 5 to 7 should be utilized in the survey of the school plant preliminary to the actual scoring. On page 7, it will be found profitable to draw a complete outline showing the details of floor plans and of grounds. The score card itself is presented on page 8. In using this score sheet, judges, when actually examining the building, will score in the first blank column on the minor subdivisions of the score card. The details for these minor subdivisions may subsequently be...
