Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1803. Excerpt: . . . meet you there. Let me know where you are to be in Herefordshire, and I will send you some claret. It is no compliment, for I am overstocked, and it will decay before I drink it. You shall have either old or new; I have too much of both. I paid the woman for your handkerchiefs; but should not have given her so much, if she had not assured me you had agreed with her. I think you may very well shake off the old debt, and she will have no reason to complain. So I told her; but if you would have me, I will pay her. Pray send me the other copy, or put me in a way of recovering the former. I am, and c. FROM THE DUKE OF ORMOND. Sir, July 22, 1714. I AM very glad to hear from you. I thought you had hid yourself from the world, and given over all thoughts of your friends. I am very sorry for the reason of your retirement. I am a witness to your endeavours to have made up, what I believe the great man you mention will hardly compass. I am of your opinion, th;it is shameful that the vacant bishopricks are not disposed of. I shall do all that lies in my power to serve the gentlemen, that I have already mentioned to the queen, and hope with good success. For the lady you mention, I...
