

Myrmidya: Warding the Magic (Paperback)

By Matt Di Spirito

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Magic is a living force with a will of its own. Nothing is forgotten; everything returns in time. Ke argis is summoned to a birth in the village of Sedryn, and he is ill prepared for the event. Born with magic in his blood, the babe becomes the focal point for ancient and terrible forces beyond the knowledge or ability of Ke argis. His protective wards cannot hold back the flood of magic rushing to claim the baby s mind and body. In a desperate final act, Ke argis saves the child and flees into the mountains. Adopting the boy as his own, Ke argis labors to protect and teach young Sedrik about magic. but the child s unquenchable power threatens not only the village, but the precarious peace established after the last cataclysm. Nine hundred years before the boy s birth, the eighth cataclysm shook the world and threw down civilization. In its aftermath, human wizards swore to keep magic a secret, locked away and taught only to a certain few, chosen to protect mankind from the...
