RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 56 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : The Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)47243684 Subject: Electronic mail systems -- United States -- Management. Excerpt: . . . any, award fee was withheld because the EOP did not provide us with complete award fee documentation. The problems with tape management were not subsequently resolved. In March 2000, the EOP tape restoration project manager stated in a memorandum that e-mail backup tapes needing restoration could not be identified and that all tapes that had been retained would need to be examined to determine their contents. The EOP also documented deficiencies in the contractors performance of e-mail system and user account maintenance. According to the EOP, the contractor had not implemented satisfactory quality controls to prevent or detect mistakes in user account and system configurations. As a result, the EOP did not detect the Letter D malfunction for 5 months and the Mail2 malfunction for almost 2 years. For example: The EOPs award fee assessment report for October 1998 through mid-April 1999 stated that the configuration error that caused the Letter D malfunction should not have occurred and it could have...
