Johnson, hasn t always served the Lord within a university context. For a decade Paul and his wife labored as Bible teachers and church planters in urban central Mexico. Concurrently Paul also worked to ignite a mission vision among believers and with church leaders. As a Great Commission vision grew, Paul worked with key leaders to launch a mission agency among the Bible Churches of central Mexico. * * * Today, Paul is passionate about effectively mobilizing young adults to go and make disciples-and to plant churches among all peoples, everywhere. How passionate? Paul himself went back to school. In his doctoral dissertation, he demonstrates that the core of Christ s mission is the making of mature disciples who are transformed into Christ s likeness and reproduce other holistic disciples to form disciple-making movements. * * * Paul E. Johnson, D.Min. (Western Seminary), Corban University s Intercultural Studies professor, also teaches Old and New Testament Survey and Dynamics of Church Development. On top of that, Johnson is the faculty advisor for The TrueNorth Corps (Corban s student missions organization), helps to plan Corban s annual BreakAway Retreat and World Outreach Week, and leads trips to various mission fields each summer.
