Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Elements of Physics, or Natural Philosophy, General and Medical: Written for Universal Use Language thus, at the present moment of the worlds existence, may be said to bind the whole human race of uncounted millions, into one gigantic rational being, whose memory reaches to the beginnings of written records, and retains imperishably the important events that have occurred; whose judgment analyzing the treasures of memory, has discovered many of the sublime and unchanging laws of nature, and has built on them all the arts of life, and through them piercing far into futurity, sees clearly many of the events that are to come, and whose eyes and ears, and observant mind at this moment, in every corner of the earth, are watching and recording new phenomena, for the purpose of still better comprehending the magnificence and beautiful order of creation, and of more worthily adoring its beneficent author. It might be very interesting to show here, in minute detail, how the arts and civilization have progressed in accordance with the gradual increase of man s knowledge of the universe; but to do so would lead too far from the main subject. We deem it right, however, to make evident to the student the arousing truths, that the progress is not yet at an end; that it has been vastly more rapid in recent times than ever; and that it seems still to proceed with increasing celerity: and we know not where the Creator has fixed the limits of the change! Although there are thousands of years on the records of the world, our Bacon, who first taught the true way to investigate nature, lived but...
