Excerpt: . . . that the Federal Acquisition Regulation be revised to provide clear guidance on the appropriate uses of the purchase card. DOD Section 404 would provide the opportunity to realize significant savings from greater use of the card, as well as other preferred purchasing methods. We believe, however, that purchasing officials should be allowed to decide that a preferred method is not appropriate in a given procurement without having to clear that decision with senior agency officials. Having senior-level defense officials involved in procurements at or below 2, 500 is an inefficient use of their time and is inconsistent with efforts to streamline these lower dollar value procurements. Section 407: Coordination of the Department of Defense criminal investigations and audits. We have a question about the provision of section 407 to create a Board on Audits and suggest the Committee may want to reconsider this provision. We support coordination and cooperation among defense auditing organizations in order to avoid duplication of effort and maximize resources. We question, however, the need to create an audit board and suggest the Committee may want to reconsider this provision. We believe the proposed Board on Audits may impair the independence of the service auditors. DOD to promote There currently exist a number of mechanisms within coordination and cooperation among defense auditing organizations. For example, to provide overall direction to the Chief Financial Officers Act DOD DOD audits, the Inspector General, service auditors, and management participate in various committees and task forces, including an...
