It enables me to check waste, to advise as to the manner of expenditure, and especially to prevent the bad effects arising from boys carelessly leaving money about. This surveillance over a little boy s purse is rendered the more expedient by the fact, that in some cases the pocket-money allowed by parents is extravagantly great. 27. Each boy provides himself with six towels, otherwise every description of furniture is provided by me without any extra charge. III. 6. In reply to question 6, I have filled up the tabular form D. I have not filled up E, as with the exception of the Holy Scripture lesson on Sunday, and a portion of Holy Scripture learned by heart, there is no time for any instruction beyond that given in preparation of schoolwork. I3. There are no established prizes in the lower school. Prizes,...
