Inner Light - Global communications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 269 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Gloria Lee learned to fly before she could drive a car. Married to an aeronautical engineer, she became entranced with the subject of UFOs and became actively engaged in psychic research and the study of esoterica. While endeavoring to develop her own extrasensory perception, she made contact with a mysterious being who claimed to be from the planet Jupiter. Gloria s original contact with the entity, who identified itself as J.W., took place in Los Angeles International Airport, where she was working as a ground hostess at that time. The entire communications and the book were done solely through mental telepathy, for which the Instrument, Gloria Lee, was specifically trained and developed over a period of four years. Lee admits this may seem incredible to some minds, but it must be remember that some of the Space People are over one million years in advance of our evolution have developed faculties many of us are not even aware exist. Unlike many who wonder what is happening in the sky, Gloria very successfully established a legitimate contact through mental telepathy. Not that the communications was all that successful at first, but some compelling inner force kept her continuing her search despite the fact that her family and friends tried to discourage her from digging deeper into the unknown. My hurt was overcome by the belief that here was Truth, sometimes highly priced, but always well worth the effort for the knowledge gained, she shamelessly noted. On the other hand, Dana Howard s contacts seemed to be highly evolved. In fact, the author of the exceedingly hard to find first edition of Diane-She Came From Venus speaks of her alien...
